THE WHITE SOCIETY,

A Missionary Organization of the African M. E. Church.

HELD INTERESTING SESSIONS

On the Second day of its Third Annual Meeting—Officers Will be Elected To-day but the Proceedings Will Continue Until Sunday Evening—Much Good Accomplished by the Society.

The third annual meeting of the Woman's Mite Missionary Society of the A. M. E. church, Pittsburgh conference, which opened in this city Thursday, will conclude its business sessions to-day, but the proceedings will not close until to-morrow evening. Of the thirty-four auxiliary churches embraced in the conference nearly all are represented, and the gathering is one of the most important in colored religious circles ever held in Wheeling.

The Mite Missionary Society is exclusively an African Methodist Episcopal organization and last year raised for missions $616.94. According to its laws, sixty per cent of the funds goes toward home missions and the remainder to prosecuting mission work in Africa and the West Indies. Cuba is to be included, and last night Miss Maggie Wheeler, of Cannonsburg, Pa., read an interesting paper on "The Open Doors of Cuba," which suggested the establishment of missions on the island among the natives. Mrs. Ferguson, of Steubenville, fraternal delegate from the Ohio conference, gave an instructive talk. The delegates to the convention are intelligent colored women, imbued with religious zeal and practical ideas for the work in hand. They are being entertained by the ladies of Wayman chapel, of the local M. E. church, of which Rev. R. H. Bumby is the pastor.

The first day's sessions included addresses of welcome, Mayor Sweeney extending the city's greeting. Yesterday was a busy day and consisted in the receiving of reports from the corresponding secretary and treasurer, and the reading of papers and subsequent discussions. The society is fathering a scheme to found a college in South Africa, and has already raised money for the purpose. Rev. W. S. Lowry, of New Brighton, Pa., made a strong address in support of this plan. The society, in addition, is educating a native African girl at Wilberforce University, Xenia, O. A pleasing feature of last night's session was a vocal solo by Miss Virginia Jeffries, of Pittsburgh. To-day officers will be elected and next year's meeting place selected.

The president, Mrs. Viola Callman, of New Brighton, presides at the meeting. Other officers actively engaged are: Miss Martha Sampson, of Uniontown, Pa., recording secretary, and Mrs. Lillian S. Dorkins, of Allegheny, corresponding secretary. The following is a list of the delegates and visitors:

Pittsburgh—Mrs. Grace P. Offer, Miss Fields, Mrs. Solomon, Mrs. Jeffries, Miss Virginia Jeffries, Mrs. Annie Streets, Brownsville, Pa.—Rev. C. A. McGee, Miss Alice Bolden, Mrs. Mary E. Black, Mrs. T. A. Green.
Allegheny—Mrs. L. Dorkins.
Washington, Pa.—Mrs. D. S. Bentley, Mrs. Mary Mull.
Uniontown, Pa.—Miss Martha Sampson, Miss Lizette West.
Morgantown—Miss Nannie Johnston, Rev. Mr. Christian.
Elizabeth, Pa.—Mrs. J. W. Batch.
Williamsport, Pa.—Mrs. Mary Stevenson.
New Brighton, Pa.—Mrs. L. Lowry, Mrs. Emma Brown, Rev. L. Lowry, Mrs. Callman.
Cannonsburg, Pa.—Mrs. Maggie E. Wheeler, Miss Beale Griffin, Miss Jennie Wheeler, Miss Agnes Vactor, Mrs. Sluby, Mrs. Catlin.
Bellevue, Pa.—Miss Maggie Valentine, Miss Snowden, Miss Maria Ash.
Connellsville, Pa.—Rev. B. F. Wheeler, Miss Mary Lewis.
Bridgeport, Pa.—Mrs. Harriet Butler, Wheeling—Mrs. Jennie W. Davis, Mrs. C. O. Johns, Miss Jennie Wood, Miss Alvira Alexander.

ONLY TEMPORARY

In the Embarrassment of the Sample Lingham Company—Receiver Applied For.

The Sample-Lingham Company, the new dry goods firm recently established on Market street, has made an application in the circuit court for a receivership, and Colonel Jero A. Miller, who is named as receiver, will likely be confirmed in that capacity to-day. This step was decided on by President George F. Lingham, in view of the pressure of local creditors, but the receivership will only be a temporary arrangement, said Mr. Lingham last night.

Mr. Lingham stated that the firm's assets, as valued by the stock in the store, not including the fixtures, were about $15,000, and the liabilities were about $25,000. Of the latter amount only $500 was due local creditors, who were hasty in pressing their claims. A few weeks ago, Mr. Sample retired from the firm, which move with the fact that some of the local creditors had entered suit, determined Mr. Lingham on applying for a receiver. The business will be carried on at the store until the receiver, without any apparent change to the public.

PRESS-BUILDERS' EXCURSION.

The Itinerary Has Been Prepared by Passenger Agent Sherman.

Traveling Passenger Agent Sam Sherman, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, has prepared the itinerary of the press-builders' excursion from Wheeling to Toledo and Put-in-Bay, to be given Saturday, July 22. The train will leave the Terminal station at 11:15 a. m., arrive in Toledo at 6:30 p. m.; supper at the Booth house or another hotel in Toledo; opera performance at the Casino in the evening. Sunday morning the excursionists will be taken to Put-in-Bay on one of the Detroit & Cleveland steamers, where the visitors will spend several days as guests at the Hotel Victory, said to be the greatest summer resort hotel in the world. During the week the excursionists will be met by a delegation from the Toledo chamber of commerce and by members of the Toledo Press Club.

IN THE CHURCHES.

SIR:—The Fourth of July is the anniversary of American Christian faith, faithfulness and victory. If this be admitted, why should not the churches continue loyal to the principles and practices that gave her success in this land of the free? Has there been a change in the Divine administration or has human nature changed? We think not. And should the Christian people of the United States depart from the faith of their fathers they would forfeit their inheritance so beautifully described by Dr. Samuel F. Smith, in our national hymn. Shall we allow this "Sweet Land of Liberty," to be lost to become a lawless land? Where there is no law there is no liberty. Is it not important for the Christian people who are as much the "salt of the earth" now as they ever were, to keep the songs of last Tuesday in solemn meditation before time destroys the powers of comparison? Never before has this nation passed such a Fourth in financial and business prosperity. Never were her coffers more full or her fields more fertile. To whom should the glory be given? And who received it? Many causes are credited for this prosperity. There is but one great cause. Once a large majority of our people believed and practiced the last stanza of the national hymn. Think of it.

"Our father's God! to thee, Author of liberty, To thee we sing! Long may our land be bright, With freedom's holy light, Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King!"

We are not pessimistic, but we believe in a complete victory for the King in the United States as well as elsewhere, but we cannot believe that He had a victory in Wheeling the last Fourth. Who is to blame? The subjects of the King. A few hundreds went to the Moundville camp ground, and drank of the crystal sparkling spring, that has never been equaled by any adulteration of man's hands. A few hundred went to the Cranes Grove and enjoyed the day in Christian ways, but where were the thousands? Weak kneed and weak in the faith say we had no good and convenient place to take the church people. And yet on every side of us Nature is preparing places. If the Christian people would have one-tenth of the Moundville camp ground of what the Lord has done there needs be no better. As it is it should be thronged every week of the hot weather. I am not a lot owner, nor do I have any lot, but one interest in the camp ground, and that is the good of the people who should use it. C. B. GRAHAM.

At the Fourth street M. E. church the pastor, Dr. Sooy, will preach at 10:30 a. m. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a midsummer service of sacred song.

Zane street church: Probationers and children will be baptized at the morning service. Morning sermon on the "Temptation of Demas." At the evening service the probationers will be taken into full communion. Sermon illustrated by Christian drinking from the "River of Life."

There will be quarterly meeting at the German M. E. church to-morrow. Prof. Wilkes, of Berea, Ohio, will preach in the forenoon, and deliver a highly interesting lecture on religious education in the evening. The Sunday school of this church with its friends will picnic at Cresap's Grove on Tuesday, July 11. The steamer Eliza H. will leave the Wheeling wharf at 8 a. m.

The usual Sunday services will be conducted at the Third Presbyterian church by Rev. R. B. Bigger. Sabbath morning theme: "The Way of Salvation." On Sabbath evening the lecture will be given on "Our Brethren in Corea." This is the fourth lecture in the series on the foreign mission fields of the Presbyterian church. Among the questions to be answered from the pastor's question box will be "How Do You Answer Congressman-elect Roberts' Claim That Polygamy is Upheld by the Bible?"

First Presbyterian church, the pastor, Rev. D. A. Cunningham, D. D., will preach at 10:30 a. m. No preaching at night. Christian Endeavor Society at 7 p. m. Services Wednesday at 8 p. m.

First Baptist church, Rev. C. M. Oliphant, pastor. Preaching Sunday both morning and evening by Rev. E. C. Nicholson, of Bethany. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Mission Sunday school, thirty-first street, at 2:30 p. m. Junior Christian Endeavor at 4 p. m. Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 8:45 p. m. Topic: "A Good Vacation." Prayer meeting next Wednesday evening.

Rev. William J. Harkness, Ph. D., will preach at Chesapeake street M. E. church, next Sunday morning and evening. Morning theme: "Keeping the Heart." Evening: "Discontent."

At Vance Memorial church the pastor, Rev. Dr. Austin, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

First Baptist church, Rev. Martin W. Buck, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor. Subject: "The Righteous Advocate." Preaching at 7:45 p. m. by the pastor. Subject: "The Parable of the Mustard Seed." Sunday school at 9:15 p. m.

North street M. E. church: Preaching Sunday at 11:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Graham, D. D. Morning theme: "Criticizing Christ." Evening: "The Kingdom of God is Within You." Sunday school at 2 p. m.

PEABODY EXAMINATION.

Vacancies in West Virginia's Quota of Scholarships—Opportunities for Prizes.

Competitive examinations for scholarships in the Peabody Normal College, Nashville, Tenn., will be held July 20 and 21, 1899, at Moundville, Piedmont and Parkersburg. There are seven vacant scholarships from West Virginia this year, and they will be awarded to those standing highest in these examinations. The scholarship is worth one hundred dollars a year and the student's railroad ticket from his home to Nashville and return by the most direct route, and is good for two years. Applicants will be examined in English, Grammar and Composition, United States History, Geography, Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, Geometry (two books) and Latin as much as is found in Collar's Gate to Caesar.

THE GAS STRIKE ENDS.

The Men to Return to Work for the Twenty Cents Advance.

Yesterday the strike of some twenty-five or thirty employees in one of the departments of the municipal gas works, who went out several weeks ago for an advance of forty cents a day, although the city council finance committee offered twenty cents advance and it was clearly shown no more could be given, came to its conclusion, the men agreed to return to work and have been shown any other body of strikers in this community, or any other. The old men are return to work next Monday.

ARBITRATION.

Secretary Salisbury, of the Trades Assembly, Demands Trial

BY DISINTERESTED PERSONS.

He Will Endeavor to Engage Thomas L. Lewis, the Ohio-side Labor Leader, as his Counsel—The Demand for Mr. Salisbury's Resignation, Given Exclusively in the Intelligence, Created a Sensation Yesterday.

The exclusive publication in the Intelligence yesterday morning of the demand made by the president and members of the official board of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly for the resignation of Secretary Thomas V. Salisbury, created a sensation in labor circles on both sides of the river yesterday.

Mr. Salisbury said yesterday afternoon that he had been surprised at the large number of his friends and acquaintances who had made it their business to come to him during the day and express their confidence in his integrity and their sympathy in this moment of persecution.

He also said that he would not allow a prejudiced jury from the faction in the trades assembly that is persecuting him to pass judgment on any charges that may be brought against him. On the contrary, he will demand that he be tried by outside parties who are known to be disinterested, and he will also demand that the sessions of this board of arbitration on his case be open to the press. He is opposed to the dark lantern methods that appear to have come into vogue in the assembly of late and will have none of it in his hearing.

Mr. Salisbury will endeavor to secure the services of Thomas L. Lewis, the Ohio-side labor leader, to defend him when the hearing is held—if one is now desired by those who are pushing the alleged case against the secretary of the assembly. This will be gall and wormwood to the faction which recently threw Mr. Lewis out of the assembly and preferred charges against him. But grew out of the late street-car strike. In fact, it is becoming apparent that Lewis and Salisbury are a pair of "hot coals" which the aforesaid faction will find it exceedingly difficult to handle.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

The council committee on ordinances has been called to meet next Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fred Schaefer, an employe in the News mechanical department, lost a finger yesterday morning through accidentally coming in contact with the sharp edge of a die knife.

Prominent colored people of this city are arranging a celebration on a grand scale of Lincoln's proclamation. Committees are already being appointed, and this great day will be fittingly observed in this city.

The Sunday schools of the Christian churches of Wheeling, Bellaire and Moundville, plunked yesterday at Cresap's Grove, down the river, going via the steamer Leroy. A most enjoyable day was spent.

Coeur de Leon and Bernard Shanley companies, Uniform Rank K. of P., base ball nines, meet at the Island base ball park this afternoon at 3 o'clock. A large crowd of Pythians will be out to root for their respective favorites.

In the Benwood column of the News last evening it was stated that "Dr. J. N. Alley (who lives in Benwood) is visiting friends in Benwood." Truly a remarkable news item. No doubt the doctor will require a month's vacation after so long a trip.

Notwithstanding the Register's twenty-four-hours-late information relative to the acquisition of the Crystal glass works by the National Glass Company, it is a fact, as related exclusively in Thursday's Intelligence, that the sale has been consummated, and the formal transfer will be made in a few days.

An open meeting for electrical workers of this city and vicinity is to be held to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock in Trades assembly hall. Grand Secretary, P. H. Wisinger, with other national officers, will be present and address the electrical workers. An invitation is extended to all to be at the meeting Sunday evening.

Justice Fitzpatrick yesterday fined W. B. McMahon, who shot Sherman Kraft in the leg, day before yesterday, as related in the Intelligence, the charge being the carrying of concealed weapons. The fine was $25 and costs. The cases against Kraft and the two Colemans were continued until next week, and bond in the sum of $500 required.

Hiram Burkett and William Broeben, sixth warders, adjourned to a vacant lot last night and proceeded to settle a little difference that had arisen between them, via the bare knuckle route. Just then Police Officer Devinney put in his appearance and as a result Burkett and Broeben had to put up for their appearance in this morning's municipal police court.

Mrs. Frederick Bries entered complaint early yesterday morning against her husband, whom she charges with having committed a criminal assault upon her sister, Mary Bowers, aged eight years. Bries, fearing arrest, when his wife discovered his criminality, left the city early in the morning. The police secured the South Side for the man, but he was not found. Later in the day Sheriff Richards and Chief Clemans investigated, and it is not thought that the case is as serious as was at first believed.

Justice Rogers yesterday morning released from custody Frank Cross, of Martin's Ferry, recently arrested on the charge of criminal assault upon Mrs. Katherine Day, on the Island. Witnesses for the defense were examined yesterday morning, and then the justice ordered the prisoner's release, on the ground that there was an insubstantiality of evidence. Chief Clemans, who caused the arrest of Cross, was quite indignant over the action of the justice.

Riverside not in it. The Riverside Glass Company, of Welfsburg, is not in the tableware combine chartered in Pennsylvania, under the name of the National Glass Company, notwithstanding D. W. Baird, president of the Riverside, is one of the incorporators of the National. Strenuous efforts have been made to get the Riverside in the combine, but the stockholders are all but unanimous against it, and some extraordinary inducements will have to be offered them before they change their present attitude. Mr. Baird, however, has from the first been strongly in favor of the move.
